

The Queenslander

ILLUSTRATED
WEEKLY

Printed at the G.P.O., Brisbane, for distribution by post on a newspaper. Five shillings per annum.

Marriage William Burgum to Cosette Weitemeyer, 9th November 1907

A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Saturday afternoon last in the reception room of the Mission House, Leichhardt Street, Spring Hill. When Mr William Burgum, a settler of Blackall Range, and eldest son of Mr T. Burgum, of Gloucester, England, was married to Miss Cosette Weitemeyer, only daughter of Mr T.P.L. Weitemeyer, one of the pioneer settlers of the Blackall, where he has lived until his recent removal to Mata Mata, New Zealand.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J.B. Johnson in the presence of numerous friends and relations. The bride, who wore a pretty gown of white muslin, and a bridal veil, and coronet of orange blossom, was given away by her uncle (Mr Schoch), and was attended by Miss Annie Court and Miss May Schoch (cousin) as bridesmaids. Mr C. Christian Weitemeyer and Mr Charles Wynne acted as groomsmen. After the ceremony the party were photographed, and at the invitation of Mr and Mrs Schoch an adjournment was made to Eschenhagen's Café, where the wedding breakfast was served, at the conclusion of which the bride and groom left for their honeymoon.